FLORIDA'S "WINDOW TO WASHINGTON"

Florida House is our state embassy on Capitol Hill that connects, celebrates, and champions Florida to the world. Known for its iconic view of the U.S. Capitol dome, Florida House welcomes more than 10,000 visitors a year, whether on vacation, on business or on a school trip.

Located one block from the east-side of the U.S. Capitol and across the street from the Supreme Court and Library of Congress, Florida House is the only state to have an embassy in our nation's capital. The beautiful Victorian-style row house was built in 1891 by Mr. Edwin Manning. He was an architect working on the Library of Congress. In the late 1960's Lawton and Rhea Chiles were visiting Washington with their children and got lost, finding themselves on Embassy Row. The legend goes one of the children said, "Let's go to Florida's embassy and get directions." Mrs. Chiles said only foreign countries have embassies, but the idea stuck in her head.

In 1972, Mrs. Chiles' saw a For Sale sign in the window of a dilapidated building at the corner of East Capitol and 2nd St. She said she could just see the Florida flag flying outside that house. With $5,000 of her own money and $120,000 raised from friends in Florida she purchased the house. Since October of 1973, the House has been of service to Floridians. Every day at Florida House is different. We host meetings, events, seminars and round table discussions. We connect Washingtonians with Floridians at parties, receptions and special events that celebrate and champion our state. School groups, Boy and Girl Scout troops, safety patrols and sports teams visit Florida House to learn more about the role our state has played in our nation's history and future.

Florida House on Capitol Hill is a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization. It is governed by a Board of Trustees representing eight regions and two councils. The Central Florida Council for Florida House meets every other month, September to May and organizes a fundraiser each March in support of Florida House. The Embassy has never received state or federal funds and relies solely on private individual and corporate donations.
