Dr. Susan MacManus has appeared on every major broadcast, cable television and radio network and has been interviewed by major newspapers in Florida, the U.S. and abroad, hence the title "Florida's most quoted political scientist." She is a Distinguished Professor at the University of South Florida in the Department of Government and International Affairs.

Florida's Jewel on Capitol Hill

Florida's embassy in Washington, D.C. connects, celebrates and promotes our state to people visiting or working in our nation's capital. As the only state to have an embassy, we offer students, visitors, those conducting business and our Congressional Delegation a home-away-from home in Washington. Each year we host hundreds of events, meetings, receptions and tours, showcasing the best of Florida. In 1972 Rhea Chiles imagined the Florida and United States flags flying from a beautiful, but neglected, Victorian house one block from the Capitol. She raised the money from Floridians to purchase and renovate the three-story building. For over 44 years, we have proudly flown both flags outside our windows, remaining a non-partisan, non-profit 501(c)3 organization. No state or federal tax dollars are used to support Florida House.
